GETTING THERE AND HOME

From London, travel to Brighton then change for Falmer; services also run via Lewes. Brighton–Falmer takes about seven minutes, but queues matter more than the train time. The club recommends boarding at Brighton by 1pm. From Falmer station, allow time to walk around to the South Stand.

Buy your rail ticket to the travel-zone boundary (Haywards Heath on the London route), checking the official map and permitted trains. Match tickets cover onward travel within the zone during the stated window. There are currently no engineering closures planned for the 8th November on the direct line between London and Brighton. There are regular direct trains scheduled from both London Bridge and London Victoria on Sunday 8th.

The journey takes approx. 1hr 10mins from London Bridge and there are regular departures e.g. 10.30, 11.00 and 11.16. From London Victoria the journey is approx. 1 hr 5 mins with regular departures e.g. 10.52 and11.05. Both latest trains listed for the 2 lines will get you into Brighton for @ 12.20.

For the return journey to London Bridge there are regular departures i.e.16.58, 17.22 and 17.28. With return trains to London Victoria being available at 17.10, 17.40 and 17.53. There are approx. 3 direct trains to London an hour for the rest of the evening on both lines.

Falmer queues can be lengthy after the game; avoid a tight London connection. Follow stewards to the platform for Brighton or Lewes. Consider waiting for crowds to ease, but keep within transport / car-park closing times.

FOOD DRINK AND FAMILIES

Brighton city centre or Lewes offers more pre-match food choices than Falmer. Leave time to get back to the station; do not rely on the village pub admitting away fans. See the brunch options in Insider Tips below.

The Terrace has food outlets and screens is meant for home fans but does allow away fans in.

The away concourse is the dependable stadium food option once open and has a wide range of offerings.

BIAS INSIDER TIPS

- Park & ride: get there early before it fills. The free outward shuttle worked well on a previous visit, but the return involved about 45 minutes queuing for a small number of buses, with no cover from rain. Build in time and dress for the weather; waits will vary.
- Breakfast / brunch by car: Hangar 9 Cafe, Redhill Aerodrome RH1 5JY (opens 8am daily); or The Hummingbird Restaurant, Brighton City Airport at Shoreham (Sunday breakfast 8–11am; lunch from 11.30am). The Hummingbird is west of Brighton, so allow for the detour and onward drive.
- Brighton city centre is another breakfast option, with plenty of food and drink choices and paid car parks. Budget for parking and leave time for the onward journey to Falmer.
- Alternative to try: Lewes makes a good pre- or post-match food and drink stop. Home to Harvey's Brewery, it offers a change from Brighton's station-area pubs. Continue by train to Falmer; check matchday times and allow for return queues.
- Lewes station car park, Station Street BN7 2UP, then train to Falmer (about seven minutes). Fulham Supporters' Trust recommends this route. Parking exists, there are approx. 290 spaces. Cost is @£8.50 for 24 hours, there are trains to Falmer every 15 – 20mins. Match tickets cover the onward train within the travel zone / hours. Allow for return queues at Falmer.
