FOOD & GETTING IN

Eat in Brighton or Lewes; leave time for the train. The Terrace admit away fans and is open 2 hours before kick off. The away concourse has good food and drink options once it has opened. South Stand, numbered ticket entrance; turnstiles normally noon. Aim for 1.15pm. Cashless: take a card. Emailed digital ticket, not Brentford app; missing 48 hours before KO: contact box office. Away supporters: South Stand; follow the numbered entrance and block on your ticket.

BIAS INSIDER TIPS

- Park & ride: arrive early; it can fill up. A previous return involved about 45 minutes queuing, few buses and no rain cover. Allow extra time.
- Breakfast en route: Hangar 9 Cafe, Redhill Aerodrome; Hummingbird, Brighton City Airport (Sunday breakfast to 11am; lunch from 11.30am); or Brighton centre with paid parking.
- Try Lewes for pre- or post-match food and drink. It is home to Harvey's Brewery and offers a change from Brighton's pubs. Check Falmer train times and allow for queues.
- Lewes station car park BN7 2UP → Falmer train, about seven minutes. Parking exists; there are approx. 290 spaces. Cost is @£8.50 for 24 hours, there are trains to Falmer every 15 – 20mins. Match tickets cover the onward train within the travel zone / hours. Allow for return queues at Falmer.
